NT: Corinthian Correspondence* 2 units

This section of the New Testament is at once very relevant, and very controversial, to today's Christianity. No pastor can avoid the valuable lessons of these letters to his church ministry. Anyone seeking to have a sharp mind in theology must have a solid grasp of the Corinthian letters. This course will guide students to an honest understanding of these letters that they may preach and teach them to the profit of the church.

Tutor: Pastor Gilbert McAdam

Schedule: Tuesday, 2:00 pm

Dogmatics 5:* 3 units

Doctrine of the Holy Spirit

Study of the Person and Work of the Holy Spirit. This is a favorite subject today - but alas, in most cases, for all the wrong reasons. We need a clear-headed understanding that derives from the Scriptures. Who is He as a Person of the Godhead? What is He doing? What is He now in relation to the Christian? What about current claims and controversial issues? This doctrine is essential in the ministry of the Word of God.

Tutor: Pastor Noel A. Espinosa

Schedule: Tuesday, Thursday 9:30 - 11:30 am

Apologetics 1* 2 units

Study of the issues concerning the defense of the Christian faith. This will address the major positions that have been adopted on apologetics, and will seek to dialogue with the best insights of each. Christianity has an intellectual foundation. Even though the human mind is depraved, arguing and defending one's faith has its due place.

Tutor: Pastor Noel A. Espinosa

Schedule: Tuesday, 11:30 - 1:00 pm

Languages: Hebrew & Greek* 2 units

Study of the original languages of the Bible. An ability to read Hebrew and Greek and knowledge of the fundamental parts of speech is the basic goal. The course is not addressed to would-be scholars entailing strenuous demands. It is for pastors and teachers whose ministries will profit from knowing how to do research on the original languages of God's Word.

Assistant Tutor: Bro. Recman Denus

Schedule: Wednesday morning, as arranged

Christian History:* 2 units

Baptists and Biographies

Study of Baptist history. The history of Baptists is a must for Baptist ministers. This is so, not so much for hero-models as for understanding the origins and progress of the Baptist cause. Baptists have not been confined to their affiliation in their impact and contribution to history. It will be both an encouragement and a call for caution. The course will include brief biographies of Christian figures with significant 20th century influence.

Tutor: Pastor Noel A. Espinosa

Schedule: Thursday, 11:30 - 1:00 pm

Modular Course: Synoptic Gospels

The Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke have been the subject of the most intense research in New Testament scholarship. They are vital to the understanding of the gospel and of the Person and message of Jesus Christ. This course will guide students to an honest understanding of these gospels that they may preach and teach them to the profit of the church.

Tutor: Dr. Ian Densham

Schedule: July 22 - 31, 2014

"Commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also."

2 Timothy 2:2
